Milos island workshop

With PANAYIOTIS MAVROPOULOS

Tue 21 June – Sat 02 July 2016 (12 Days)

MILOS. The statue of Aphrodite in Louvre museum, reminds to all people the name of this special island with the 75 multi coloured beaches. The island of Opsidianos; a type of naturally occurring volcanic glass that marked Milos prosperity for centuries.

A LOVELY PLACE TO DISCOVER, THROUGH DANCE AND MUSIC!

Fantastic MILOS island in Cyclades (Tue 21/06-Sat 02/07) 11 nights

Milos has the most extraordinary terrain of any of the Cyclades due to its volcanic past. There are amazing rock formations, hot springs and as many as seventy-five beaches, some of which rival the best in Greece!

Milos is an island of the western Cyclades, close to Sifnos island. It is connected by ship with the port of Piraeus and with neighbouring islands all year round. In summer the service is daily and frequent. The duration of the trip varies from two and a half hours (by high speed and catamaran), to up to six hours (by conventional ferries). In summer there is also connection with most of the rest of Cyclades (Santorini etc) and with Crete. Milos has a national airport. Flights are on a daily basis from Athens airport

You are about to have the chance to dance Greek dances and learn Greek songs.

To feel the sun's caress, the embrace of the sea, the taste of home-cooked food and local wine, the scent of wild herbs on the hillside and through the companionship and parties, to experience an authentic Greece not like a tourist, but like a Greek.

We stay at Apollon Studios at the village Pollonia (Apollonia) 20m far from the sea, run by a lovely family and we will have our workshop in the well ventilated marble-floored lounge of the hotel
